ABJ Week of April 17 - 21 “Altar’d in Faith”

ABJ Week Preview

- Thank you to each of you able to spend time at Three Way Conferences last week. If you were unable to join us but still feel like you would like to meet the teacher(s) to better support your students learning, please contact the teacher directly for a phone call or to set-up a meeting time
- If you are a current ABJ student and know YOU WILL NOT BE RETURNING TO ABJ for 2017-18 please let the office know right away. This will greatly assist planning.

Important this week

Monday (17) Easter Monday – No School

Tuesday (18) RCMP Boot Camp (free to attend/all welcome) 3:30-4:30pm in small gym

Wednesday (19) Do something nice for someone else (and don’t tell them)

Thursday (20) ABJ Easter Mass in the morning / Adoration begins

Friday (21) Adoration begins for our ABJ community - Adoration is a time to show reverence to Our Lord God and to spend time with Him. Adoration is your time to talk with God and to reflect on His awesome and mysterious presence. Mrs. Damur will share more this week.

Thank you to all the students and staff able to participate in the ABJ led ministries for the Good Friday Mass at OLPH last week. This Thursday we will celebrate our school Easter Mass with Bishop Bittman presiding over both services. You are encouraged to join us!

The Octave of a feast refers to an eight-day festal period commencing with that feast. Presently in the Roman Catholic Church, Easter is one of only two solemnities that carries an octave, the second being Christmas Day. We are currently in the period celebrating Easter solemnity.
