ABJ Week of June 19 – 23 “Altar’d in Faith”

ABJ Week Preview

- We have now limited or eliminated all extra-curricular activities for the remainder of the year, as the philosophy is to focus on academics and personal wellness in preparation for final exams. We encourage students to be personally active in a manner to best prepare them for the upcoming exams. Teachers are very willing to assist students in preparation for the final assessment period. Please review the test schedule: <https://abj.eics.ab.ca/download/104101>
- Textbook / Chromebook returns to library begin Tuesday at 8:30am. Each day from 8:30-3:30
- Key reminders for all tests / exam rooms
 - No watches of any kind (this is because of I-watches – small computers)
 - No hats or toques
 - No personal technology devices except for proper calculators where allowed
 - No hoodies or jackets with pouches or pockets

Important this week...

Monday (19) FLA 30-1 Final 9:00-noon / Final day of classes

Tuesday (20) FLA 30-1 Part B / Non-diploma exams start

Wednesday (21) National Aboriginal Day in Canada

Thursday (June 22) English Part B Diploma

Friday (June 23) Social Studies Part B Diploma

The end of the semester is hard on many students, but try to keep your head up. Always remember that the school counsellors offer a number of counselling resources to help students handle these feelings. Also, check with your teacher’s for reassurance and support. If the stresses ever get to be too much, be sure to talk to someone about the many different supports available, as you are never alone. Great info at: <https://abj.eics.ab.ca/students/counselling>
