- To the parents/guardians of all EICS students
- Environment Canada is forecasting extreme cold conditions through the week of January 13th, which is also exam week for students. We are asking parents to have alternate transportation arrangements in place in the event that busing is cancelled due to the weather. We will make every attempt to make the call and advise parents the night before, but in the event of a bus breakdown, notification may be last minute.
- Notices will be sent out using the BUS PLANNER notification system, School Messenger as well as a posting on the eics website.
- We would also like to remind students to be appropriately dressed for the weather.
- Thank you in advance.

Winter and spring means that post-secondaries are amping up for their second big round of student recruitment. Please take a moment to see what our local area schools are planning. I would encourage you to take part and see what each institution has to offer and begin to think about what space and programs might potentially be a best fit for you!

INFO SESSION WEEKS

FEBRUARY 3 - 8

MARCH 2 - 7

A MacEwan University information session could be the best first step you've ever taken. Attend an information session to learn about what you need to get in to your program and what you'll study while you're here.

This is a great opportunity to visit campus, connect with faculty and advisors, engage in discussions and be inspired by where your MacEwan University education can take you once you're done. Go to Faculty and Program Specific Info Sessions - there are over 48 of them! Check out what is of interest to you!

If you are ready to apply, or have already applied, come visit our friendly admissions staff at the Office of the University Registrar until 7 p.m. on February 4 and 5, and March 3 and 4. They'll help you with your application, and if you qualify, you may even receive an on-the-spot offer of admission! To be assessed for early admission you'll need access to a copy of your academic transcript.
