Parents and Students Info:

- Here is a short survey to provide ABJ's staff with feedback on the changes of learning from home. Please take time to complete it to assist us better understand how our students are doing - <https://forms.gle/spFozYB3rey56NiG7>
- All teachers will be making online Parent-Teacher Interviews available for April 20-23. An email will go out on Tuesday morning at 9:00 for access to the website to schedule an interview. Teachers have made appointments that will work for them based on their current teaching assignment and childcare needs. We appreciate your flexibility. Of course, teachers are also available for connection via email anytime during the semester as well.
- Grade 9 to 10 Registration Appointments are available all week! Students should access all needed information in their grade level Google Classroom.
- If any students or parents are seeking information from ABJ, please do not hesitate to email Mr. Dumont @ josephd@eics.ab.ca
- All course selection information for current grade 10 & 11s is listed on our website, located here -
 - <https://abj.eics.ab.ca/students/course-selection>
 - Important videos/information has been posted on your students Grade Level Google Classroom that outlines what 2020-2021 Registration Procedures/Course Selections will look like. Ongoing throughout the week, we will be posting additional information so please ensure students are ready on their end as registration will begin the week of April 14th.
- This document explains Google resources for education that all students have access to using their school login information.
