Friday (25) – Holodomor Memorial Day

The Holodomor (Ukrainian Famine-Genocide) claimed millions of innocent lives. This little known genocide committed against the Ukrainian population in 1932-1933 was denied and hidden from world scrutiny by the Soviet regime. As Soviet archives in Russia and Ukraine have become available, the true nature of this atrocity has become known, revealing that there were millions of innocent victims. Today, Holodomor remains as the largest mass-murder of civilians undertaken during peacetime.

We continue to educate future generations about this tragic genocide and its significance to our Ukrainian-Canadians.
